Would You See Mme. Le
Gai? Ask Professor
Rieber

Parisian Danseuse at Summer Session Is Guarded

BERKELEY, June 16.—Professor C. H. Rieber dean of the summer session of the University of California appeared today in a delightful and new role of protecting women. For he is known Professor Rieber has undertaken to guarantee peace and quietude to Mme. Le Gai, the famous French danseuse, who has come to teach at the summer session. Callers at the Hotel Shattuck today who asked to see the Madame received from the hotel clerk the question in return: "Have you permission from Dean Rieber?"

A negative reply was met with the ultimatum that no one would be permitted to see Mme. Le Gai except upon presentation of a written order from Dean Rieber. The hotel clerk would venture no explanation of this novel arrangement except that it was orders given to him by Mme. Le Gai herself. Apparently, more publicity than the summer session dean has known for has been given to his sprightly Parisian charge. First, the New York papers learning that she was to teach in the University of California, the tango and the maxixe and the hesitation found her a tempting morsel of news which they proceeded to print with much gay emolument.

FAME PRECEDES HER.
All the way to this coast her fame was heralded and she had hardly reached Berkeley before at least one minister, Rev. David A. Pitt, of the First Baptist Church of this city had expressed his disapproval of Mme. Le Gai's program, but an additional warning to the summer session dean was the fact that Mme. Le Gai had taken a sort of French leave to make public to the press a letter which he had written to her in which he had made so bold as to call the people of Berkeley conservative. Here is what the Professor wrote her:

"Our university community is somewhat conservative, and for several years I have been criticised for introducing dancing into the summer session program, but I am sure with our assistance you will put the art into its proper place on the university program."

So Dean Rieber has decided to take no further chances of untimely presentation of Mme. Le Gai. He has decided to have her chamber at the Hotel Shattuck. Mme. Le Gai apparently impressed with her error will await the appearance only of such persons as have passed the professional Jerome Anderson, a young motorman for the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal railway, residing at 41 East Sixteenth street, was run down and instantly killed by an automobile containing a party of 20 riders, north after one o'clock this morning at Fifteenth street and San Pablo avenue. It is believed by the police that the automobile was driven by a Harr Volkin, a negro chauffeur for J. Walter Lamme, who is said to have taken the car out without the permission of the owner. The police are searching for Volkin, but the man has disappeared after hastily removing his clothes and other belongings from his home, 3424 Broadway.

Anderson, who was 24 years of age, is survived by a wife and two brothers. He was on his way home at the time of the accident, and was apparently crossing from the city hall at Fifteenth street and going toward San Pablo avenue when he was run down. After striking Anderson, the driver of the automobile increased his speed and proceeded out San Pablo avenue. The automobile was seen by T. E. White of the Forum Cafe. White saw the machine swerve at Fifteenth and Washington streets and saw it pick up speed but did not know at the time that a man had been struck and he taken.

CHARGES TO BE ENTERED.
The police have been unable to learn the details of the killing of Anderson, but they have already succeeded in securing a substantial number of circumstantial evidence, which will be presented before the coroner's jury at the inquest tomorrow night. A charge of manslaughter or a grave charge will undoubtedly be entered.

The evidence is woven about a broken automobile lamp, a number plate splattered with human blood, the sudden appearance of Volkin after he had told attaches of the garage at Twenty-fourth and Broadway that he had struck a horse and the fact that Volkin had been seen at Shellmound park with a number of women in Lamme's machine at a picnic held at the park which lasted until after midnight. These facts the police gathered during the night. Lieutenant Woods, Corporal Fahy, inspectors Kyle and Nellis, Corporal Pullman and Patrolman Kumschick and Hughes are working on the case.

BODY FOUND.
The body of Anderson was found lying face downward on the street at 110 E. Julius Hermann, 675 Seventh street, who notified the police. The investigation immediately commenced and the trail led to the garage. There the blood-stained machine plate and broken automobile lamp were found.

DECLARES LIQUOR
QUESTION DEMANDS
ACTION OF PARTY

CLINTON, Mo., June 16.—"The liquor question can be settled only by three branches of government—legislative, judicial and executive—combining for its solution," declared James H. Wootendyke of Los Angeles, in an address at the national conference of leaders and workers of the Prohibition party here today. Wootendyke declared the liquor question demanded political party action.

A law to be effective must be administered by an administration favorable to it," he said. "In like manner, prohibition awaits an administration of the government by a political party that believes in that reform. It is impossible otherwise."

"The Prohibition party has said since its beginning that the solution of the question lies in electing officials whose political attitudes are against the liquor business. It has stood throughout its history for the destruction of the liquor traffic by administration and not by law. It is consistently contending that even comparatively minor problems can be settled only by the three branches of government combining."

Wootendyke closed with an appeal for the workers to extend their organization at once and endeavor to elect Prohibitionists in every branch of the government.

City Attorneys and Citizens Oppose Increase in Ferry Tolls

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16.—The application of the Southern Pacific Company for an order increasing its passenger fares between San Francisco and Alameda county points and between stations in Alameda county was heard before the State Railroad Commission this morning. In an effort to support the plan of the railroad to raise its suburban rates representatives of the East Oakland Protective League, the Pothill Improvement clubs and other organizations and the city attorneys of both Oakland and Berkeley, were in attendance.

The session was presided over by Commissioners John Eschman and Charles C. East. E. W. Durbow and Paul Shoup appeared for the Southern Pacific. In behalf of the protesters and intervenors there were present City Attorney Benjamin Woolner of Oakland and City Attorney Frank V. Cornish of Berkeley. The improvement clubs were represented by Guy C. Earl and Chaffee Hall of Oakland.

WIDE INTEREST.
The endeavors of the Southern Pacific to bring about a raise in its passenger fares and its consequences rates affecting, as they do, $300,000 people residing on both sides of San Francisco bay and involving 40,000 daily commuters between the two communities, have attracted more than ordinary interest and in consequence a stubborn fight for the retention of the present rate is being made.

Although the Southern Pacific Company has not announced what increase it desires put into effect, it is generally understood that it plans to increase the one-way fare from San Francisco and all points in Alameda county reached by the suburban service, from ten to fifteen cents. It is desired to make the round trip rate 25 cents and the commutation rate $4 a month instead of $3. If these are its plans and if the Railroad Commission should allow the increase, it would mean an added expense of more than $500,000 a year to the people, chiefly of Alameda county.

TWO PETITIONS.
There are two matters under consideration by the commission today. One is the rate from San Francisco and the other the rates and commutation fares between stations in Alameda county.

BERKELEY, June 16.—Word has been received here of the nomination of Mrs. Grace B. Caukin of this city, secretary of the Democratic state central committee of California and recording secretary of the Woman's State Democratic Club to the office of receiver of public moneys at San Francisco.

SANFORD ALSO NOMINATED.
WASHINGTON, June 16.—President Wilson made these nominations today: Mrs. Grace B. Caukin, receiver of public moneys at San Francisco; John B. Sanford, Utah, California, receiver of the land office at San Francisco.

John Bunyan Sanford nominated today by President Wilson for registrar of the land office at San Francisco was born in Shelbyville, Tenn., in 1868, and came to California in 1892. He graduated from the State Normal School at San Jose, taught school for eight years, served as a member of the Board of Education of Alameda county for eight years and is editor and proprietor of the Ukiah Dispatch-Democrat. In 1894 he was elected to the Assembly where he served continuously until his election to the State Senate in 1902 to which body he has since been continuously re-elected making him the longest member of the legislature from point of service.

SHE WAS SURPRISED.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 16.—Mrs. Grace B. Caukin, nominated today by President Wilson to be receiver of public moneys at San Francisco, would be, if she is confirmed by the Senate, the first woman in California to hold an appointive office under the present administration. At present she is secretary of the Democratic state central committee with offices in this city.

Mrs. Caukin was so astonished over the news of her appointment that her first thought was to verify the news. She immediately telephoned her husband, who is a prominent business man in Berkeley, and he confirmed the news. She then telephoned her mother, who lives in Berkeley, and she also confirmed the news. Mrs. Caukin is a well-known social worker and has been active in many charitable organizations. She is a member of the Woman's State Democratic Club and has been a prominent figure in the Democratic party in California.

Hotel Auditor J. P. Norman
Tells of Irregularity in Accounts

Makes Restitution for Peculations of Over

BERKELEY, June 16.—Face to face with his former employer, Jack P. Norman, auditor of the Hotel Shattuck, early this afternoon broke down and confessed to irregularity in his accounts.

He stated that he believed he had taken in all $517 from the hotel concern and that his thefts have dated only from last September. Since that time, he said, he has been in financial straits and badly in need of money. He promised restitution of the amount taken and immediately turned over to W. E. Woolsey, proprietor of the hotel, a bill of sale of an automobile.

An additional $50 in cash was paid at the same time by Mrs. Norman. The hotel management is not inclined to prosecute Norman and no warrant has been issued for his arrest. Norman offered to assist the expert in going over his books. He declared that his connection with a lawless company had caused the financial difficulty which led to his arrest.

APPEARS AT CONFERENCE.
Norman appeared by pre-arrangement with Woolsey this morning at the office of Woolsey's attorneys, Elston & Nichols. A conference was held there at 10 o'clock and Norman and the attorneys, at which some arrangement of Norman's alleged tangled accounts was planned.

That Norman had apparently never left Berkeley, but remained at his home here while the police at Woolsey's insistence, were searching the state for him, and even sending messages East to have the ship lines to Europe watched, became evident when he telephoned early this forenoon to Woolsey at the Shattuck.

It is understood that Norman, in interview, which the hotel proprietor refused to grant. It was then arranged that he should appear at 11 o'clock at the attorney's offices. That the total amount of his alleged peculations was over $500, as was at first supposed, became evident upon continued examination of his accounts this morning.

The bodies of the massacred people were thrown into wells. The refugees, many of whom were suffering from wounds were in a state of starvation on their arrival.

only under extraordinary circumstances.

A petition from the Foothill Improvement Club was read before the commission. Epitomized, this petition is as follows:

EXORBITANT FARES.

Charges that fares between San Francisco and Havenscourt, Yokum avenue and Parker avenue are exorbitant, unreasonable and discriminatory as compared with other like fares for similar service, using Thousand Oaks as a basis of comparison.

That 10 cent fare be ordered between San Francisco and Havenscourt, Yokum avenue and Parker avenue, $2 commutation fare be established between San Francisco and Havenscourt, $3.25 between San Francisco and Yokum avenue and $3.50 between San Francisco and Parker avenue.

WARFIELD PROTEST.

The protest of Henry Warfield, one of those represented by Attorney Guy C. Eary, is as follows:

Complains that fares from Dutton avenue to Oakland and to San Francisco are exorbitant.

That Southern Pacific promised to furnish direct line via Alameda mole to San Francisco, making running time forty-five minutes.

That Southern Pacific forces patrons to change at Havenscourt to Melrose train, lengthening time to one hour and ten minutes.

That Southern Pacific refuses to run trains later than 9 p. m. from San Francisco, and ask that rates be reduced, that Southern Pacific be compelled to run trains via Alameda mole direct and that Southern Pacific be forced to extend service from 9 to 11 p. m.

Complains that Southern Pacific collects more than 5 cents for continuous ride in same general direction between stations on Melrose extension and between stations on Seventh-street line in violation of section 27 of the public utilities act.

Following is a summary of the Southern Pacific Company's application:

Asked for permission to establish fares higher than 5 cents between West Oakland and stations on Melrose extension.

Petitions for order to apply fares within 5 cents of Oakland greater than 5 cents, to wit: 10 cents between all stations between Havenscourt, Dutton avenue, West Oakland and intermediate.

Supporting this the company says: "The line is designed to handle suburban traffic between San Francisco and Alameda county points. Trains do not stop at street crossings. Traffic hauled is for long distance and line is not located in densely settled volume of short-haul traffic."

The company claims that greater loss will result from charging 5-cent fares. Cost of constructing line between Sather and Dutton avenues, $381,627, running through a sparsely settled territory. New territory will be non-compensatory for some time to come.

Alleges deficit for twelve months ending June 30, 1913, in operation of suburban line, $3,247,555.

Alleges that hearing before the commission showed that company sustained a loss of $384,000 for year ending without reference to interest on its investment.

A second petition was filed by the Southern Pacific Company. In this the company:

Alleges that fares between all Alameda county points are unduly low, non-compensatory and confiscatory.

Alleges that lines are compensated at an annual loss without reference to interest on investment of $33,500,000; that losses approximate $58,000 per month.

Petitions that order be entered permitting applicants to increase fare between San Francisco and all Alameda county points between all points within Oakland and all points in Alameda county.

Besides the attorneys for the Southern Pacific Company, there were present today from that corporation the assistant engineer, J. B. Pope; the passenger traffic manager, C. F. Fee; the assistant general passenger agent, Frank Batturs; and the company's auditor, L. McCaffrey.

WHAT COMPANY ASKS.

After Attorney Earl had outlined the position of the protesters, C. W. Durbrow presented the petition of the Southern Pacific Company to the commission. He declared that the railroad was losing money in suburban service in Alameda county and cited the refusal of the commission to grant an increase on the Creek route and on certain lines in Alameda county.

"We now ask," said Durbrow, "and we court a complete and exhaustive investigation into the suburban system. We have with great labor compiled figures regarding the electric lines in Alameda county and separated the accounts as distinct and apart from the regular railroad business of the company. We are going to submit our figures for the benefit of the commission's engineers. If necessary, we will set aside an office in our building, where your engineers can come and look over our accounts."

J. B. Pope, the assistant engineer of the company, was then called to the witness stand. He declared that he had been an engineer for thirty-three years and for seven years had been in charge of the valuation department of the Southern Pacific railroad. He had made valuation estimates for the Southern Pacific, the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company line and other smaller lines owned by the Southern Pacific Company.

ENGINEER TESTIFIES.

He declared that the electric lines in Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley, including the portion of Oakland pier set aside for their use, their share of the yard expense, and the expense for the floating maintenance on the bay side the southern transmission of electric power, the valuation of the system, which was completed on June 30, 1910, and was made necessary by the burning of the construction records in the fire of 1905.

Based on this survey, and including

Company Claims Monthly Deficit on Ferry Rates

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—The Southern Pacific began today before the State Railroad Commission the fight for higher communication rates between this city and points in Alameda county, across San Francisco Bay, of which it has long been paying the way with statistics on the cost of operation.

In making application for higher rates today the company named no specific figures, but asked that the commission fix the rates which would earn a fair return on investment.

Counsel for the company placed the replacement value of the Alameda county system at $26,533,667, and the present value at $23,516,000, on which it earned $122,070 a month and expended $187,423 a month in operating costs, making an operating deficit of $65,353. More than 80 per cent of the trackage has been electrified.

Counsel for the rates of Oakland and Berkeley intervened in the application.

the cost of electrifying, the figures above given covered the ground, he declared. He said that the mole had been figured on a 10 per cent basis, half of it being used for electric and half for regular railroad business.

Asked by Commissioner Eshleman as to whether the $250,000 expended by way of addition to the pier was for the electric end, he said that the suburban lines were rapidly encroaching on the additional space, which, however, is being used for an extra slip.

COST OF BETTERMENT.

In connection with the bay passenger traffic, and covering a four months' period, the estimates were made that the Berkeley, Piedmont and Newark ferryboats carried 86.6 per cent suburban passengers and 13.4 per cent steam train passengers. The reconverting of the steam lines into electric lines cost, according to Pope, $4,314,378, and the new construction work, which includes real estate and rights of way, cost $3,741,938. The new equipment up to June of last year cost $1,915,267. Asked to describe the individual cost of reconstruction work, Pope gave the figures as follows: Seventh street, local and Alameda lines (Central Pacific property), $2,571,987. Fourteenth and Harrison streets, $1,047,880.

Berkeley local, $694,531.

These figures include the cost of the power plant, but not the equipment or rights of way. Other costs were:

New extensions, Melrose and San Leandro, including real estate, $181,736.

Pacific avenue, Lincoln avenue and Eighth street, including real estate, $182,500.

The Peninsula railway, including real estate, $1,285,784.

California street, including real estate, $440,648.

Elsworth street, including real estate, $275,000.

Ninth street, including real estate, $491,461.

Berkeley local extension, $728,646.

EXAMINES METHOD.

Pope was cross-examined at great length by Attorney Earl as to the nature of his making up his accounts, and as to why he had eliminated various figures.

The Southern Pacific Company, in connection with its claims made before the commission, alleges that the value of property of Alameda county lands, including real estate, and construction values, eliminated from the total figures given above is $33,546,000, and that the expense of transporting passengers is $107,423.16 per month, and that the total revenue per month from that is $129,070.00, giving an approximate loss to the company of $58,000 monthly.

Should the Southern Pacific Company succeed in their attempt to raise rates, the new tariff put in effect would substantially be on the same basis as that now operating to points in San Mateo county and would work a great injury to Oakland and Alameda county. The volume of traffic at present crossing the bay as compared to that going down the peninsula is very much larger, and for that reason has always enjoyed a lower rate.

HE QUILTS PRETTY WIFE TOO HANDSOME, HE SAYS

MRS. ROSE WALKER, WHO LOST HER HUSBAND'S LOVE BECAUSE SHE WAS TOO BEAUTIFUL.

SHE SEEKS DIVORCE

Teaching Hubby Lesson, She Returns to Find Hearth Cold.

LOS ANGELES, June 13.—Is beauty, besides being skin-deep, also a legal cause for divorce? Are tantalizing curls, roguish eyes, and smiles, a reason for desertion?

These are the questions that the Superior Court of Los Angeles was asked to decide when pretty Rose Walker, 22 years old, demanded a decree from her husband, Fred Walker, Judge Monroe has refused the fair complainant, and she's going to file suit again, this time with the same charges but with corroborative evidence. She holds that her complaint is perfectly legal.

Mrs. Walker declares that her husband, who is ten years her senior, and a local contractor, informed her that she "was too young and pretty to be a wife, and that he would not return to her on those grounds."

This was, according to Mrs. Walker, after she had left him, but returned four times asking him to take her back.

"I only left him to teach him a lesson," she declared. "I never wanted to leave him. In that event I want a divorce."

She declares that because her husband objected to her childish ways and youthful behavior he adopted a policy of silence, sometimes speaking to her only once in several weeks. The bungalow where they lived, she declares, became a "House of Silence." Finally, angered, she left the place.

Her husband, she said, helped her pack. She later sought to return to him and was informed that he did not desire her.

The first suit was denied for lack of corroborative evidence. Attorney Leo Youngworth will file the new case.

QUIT AND COME HOME. APPEAL TO CONGRESSMEN

PORTERVILLE, June 13.—"For Heaven's sake, quit and come home!" was in effect the sense of numerous telegrams sent to Representative Denver Church and Senator Wilkie in Washington by several leading Porterville business men.

Declaring that crops were never better, that the general trade tone is healthy and that fear of the Wilson cohorts in Congress is the only element which has stagnated trade, Porterville business men are appealing to their representative in Congress to use their influence to obtain an adjournment.

It is said that a somewhat general disposition to telegraph Washington to "let up for a while" is being manifested in valley towns.

gasp of surprise was audible over the telephone.

"You've quite taken my breath away," she explained. "What has been my part in politics? Well, you see I was the original Wilson woman in Northern California. I was organizer and secretary and general factor of the woman's Wilson League."

"Now, don't say this—yes, you can, too. I don't mean to say that I was the first woman to register as a Democrat in California or anything like that, but I was the first woman to come forward in Democratic politics after we got the vote and attend meetings and take an active part in things."

"JUST NATURALLY DEMOCRAT."

"I was just naturally a Democrat. My grandfather was one of the pioneers of this city and he was a Democrat, and so were all my folks, though my father was a good Republican. So you see we don't all follow our fathers in politics."

"Is my husband living? Yes, indeed. We lived in the old town of Sonoma until recently and all the property I have in the world is there, but of course now we shall make our home here."

"Have you any children?"

"There was an infant change in the tone of the reply. "I've got two of the dearest children in the world. At least," with a little deprecatory laugh—"I think so."

Business Stops When Stevenson Is Buried

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., June 13.—With business suspended and the city draped in mourning, Bloomington paid final honors today to former Vice-President Adlai E. Stevenson. The body lay in state in the Rotunda of the courthouse for two hours while thousands filed past.

The procession to the church was headed by a band, a troop of the Illinois National Guard and surviving members of the Stevenson escort club, a famous marching organization of the campaign of 1892, which accompanied him to Washington.

There followed 300 miners from the Stevenson mine, of which Stevenson was for many years president; members of the bar association, the mayor and city officials and numerous local organizations.

Removes Bomb From Path of S. F. Train

PASADENA, June 13.—A supposed infernal machine was removed from the Santa Fe railway track here last night by F. J. Catto less than two minutes before the eastbound Santa Fe overland train passed by.

Catto, who was walking along the track, thought he saw a lighted cigarette stub. On close inspection he saw it was a four-inch fuse attached to a metal cylinder about nine inches long and one and one-half inches in diameter. He threw it off the track and then stepped aside when he heard the train approaching.

The police took charge of the supposed infernal machine and will attempt to explode it tomorrow.

Mrs. E. M. Levy, the mother, who lives at 975 Valencia street, informed Policeman O. S. # BORAX DEAL IS CONFIRMED

Smith to Turn Over $4,000,000 for Readjustment

Successful in his efforts begun over a year ago to raise capital on the borax holdings with which to meet his obligations and relieve his creditors, F. M. Smith returned yesterday from New York bringing confirmation of the news that he has sold a portion of his holdings in Borax Consolidated Limited and that $4,000,000 will be paid over in San Francisco within a few days by the British syndicate which has purchased approximately one-third of the stock of that corporation.

Through this transaction Smith comes triumphantly through a crisis which, it was predicted a year ago, might have wrecked his financial career and deposed him from his position as practical controller of the borax market. His obligations will be met in full, he will relieve the financial stringency of the vast enterprises in which he is interested and will maintain practically the same position in the borax industry. Among the holdings which he retains are a large interest in the San Francisco

Bank $4,000,000 of English capital, which was employed by him in the work of constructing the Tonopah and Tidewater Railway, a subsidiary of the borax company, and this stringency is now relieved again by approximately the same amount being brought by Smith from England for the purpose of meeting the obligation of the important companies with which his name has been most intimately associated and of settling his personal paper. This also insures the success of the labor of the F. M. Smith advisory committee, and means much for the development of the east bay.

Encouraging Move, Says Fleishhacker

By MORTIMER FLEISHHACKER, President Anglo-California Trust Co.

It is a matter of extreme gratification to the F. M. Smith advisory committee, of which I am a member, that the news of Smith's borax holdings and to know that he retains control of the borax industry, his holdings in the Realty Syndicate and his control of the borax situation.

RELIED ON SMITH'S ASSURANCE.

With the announcement of his successful mission to London, Smith expressed his appreciation of the kind attitude of his numerous creditors throughout the state, who allowed him the opportunity to meet the situation as he has.

Smith is deeply grateful to his creditors, said Walter L. Peck, attorney for the syndicate this morning in discussing the transaction. "During this long period of stress they have relied upon his personal assurance that he would do all in his power to meet his obligations."

While adding in every way the efforts of the advisory committee to straighten out his affairs, Smith determined to work alone on the most important part—the raising of capital for the relief of the situation, without imperiling the properties in which he held so large a share. It was solely for this purpose that he went to New York and later to London. That he was unhampered during this period by interference from his creditors is a source of profound gratitude.

DEAL ARRANGED.

In company with Attorney James F. Peck, Smith went to England a month ago and after a number of conferences and lengthy negotiations a deal was arranged whereby Smith sold one-third of his holdings in the Borax Consolidated Limited to a syndicate headed by the stock brokerage firm of Clark & Co. The transaction might have been consummated in a shorter time, but Smith was determined to realize as high a price as possible for the benefit of his creditors.

Borax Consolidated stock is one pound sterling or $4.84 a share at present, that of the syndicate brought 24 shillings or $11.6 a share. The market price of the stock in small blocks has gone as high as $9 a share.

While disposing of one-third of the stock in Borax Consolidated, Smith still holds a portion of between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000. The Pacific Coast Borax Company holds 51 per cent of the capital stock of Borax Consolidated, and Smith holds practically all of the Pacific Coast Borax stock. R. C. Baker, managing director of Borax Consolidated, who has been identified with the interests for thirty years, will retain with Smith the control of the borax situation.

The $4,000,000 which will be available for use within a few days, as soon as the details of the stock transfers have been completed, will be placed at once by the advisory committee, consisting of Frank B. Anderson, John S. Drumm, Mortimer Fleishhacker, W. W. Garthwaite and C. O. G. Miller. Of this amount about $1,500,000 will be paid over to the Realty Syndicate, which holds the majority stock in the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railroad. The remainder about $2,500,000 will be used for the retirement of Smith's personal paper and obligations scattered throughout the state.

It is understood that the Realty Syndicate will issue $7,000,000 in bonds; to secured creditors will be given class A bonds aggregating $2,500,000 and to unsecured creditors will be given class B bonds aggregating $4,500,000.

It is a matter upon which F. M. Smith is to be congratulated, said a prominent banker this morning, "but I believe that a goodly share of the credit should be given to Attorney James F. Peck, the personal advisor of Smith. For over a year Mr. Peck has given his best efforts and the greater portion of his time to the adjustment of this matter. He accompanied Smith to London and was largely instrumental in carrying the negotiations to a satisfactory finish."

Equity Remains, Says W. I. Brobeck

By W. I. BROBECK.

F. M. Smith returned from London yesterday and announces the sale of a portion of his borax company holdings. Approximately about $4,000,000 will be realized by Smith, and he will retain as well a substantial holding in the property. Of this sum a substantial portion will be paid to the Realty Syndicate and will be used by Smith and the advisory committee, consisting of Frank B. Anderson, John S. Drumm, Mortimer Fleishhacker, W. W. Garthwaite and C. O. G. Miller, in carrying out the refinancing plan which has been in course of completion. The other two million a half will be available for the purpose of retiring Smith's personal paper; thus will be solved the problem of refinancing the Smith properties and relieving the strained financial condition.

RETAINS PLACE.

Smith remains as managing director of the borax properties, which may be said to have been the creation of F. M. Smith and with which he has been identified for over thirty years. From small beginnings this property has been developed until it is regarded as one of the largest and most important in the industrial world. During the last fifteen years, it has been an average of 15 per cent on par of its stock and during the last year has paid a dividend of a net profit of $1,750,000.

GROSS LEADS IN LISTS IS ABLEST CANDIDATE

Experience Is Factor in Qualifying Him for Co. Clerkship

George F. Gross, auditor and assessor of the city of Oakland, who will be a candidate at the primary election for nomination for the office of county clerk of this county, is considered the strongest aspirant for the office.

Gross first became identified with public affairs in May, 1901, when he entered the employ of the city as a deputy in the treasurer's office, serving there for six years, the last three as chief deputy. In 1907 he was elected to succeed A. H. Breed as auditor and city assessor and has since that time held the position.

He has made an enviable record in this important office and his honesty, capability and efficiency are admitted by all.

WITHOUT REVERSAL.

Oakland's first independent assessment was made by Gross as city assessor.

land copied the assessment made by the county assessor, but owing to a charter amendment having been adopted by the people just prior to his assuming office, Gross was confronted with the task of making the city's own assessment. So thoroughly and conscientiously did he accomplish this important work that his raise of valuations from $69,148,894 to $100,434,412 met with practically no adverse criticism.

EXPERIENCE QUALIFIES.

The experience gained by Gross during his many years in municipal service fully qualifies him for the proper performance of the duties of such an important office as that of county clerk.

GEORGE F. GROSS.

He possesses those rare qualities which have enabled him to hold the absolute loyalty of the many deputies in the auditor's and assessor's office, at the same time securing from them perfect attention to duty and courteous treatment of the public.

Gross is a native of Alameda county, Oakland, where he has always resided.

He is a member of the Commercial Club, Chamber of Commerce, National Sons of the Golden West and the Woodmen of the World.

UNCLE SAM SEES WAY TO HELP UNEMPLOYED

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Secretary Wilson of the department of labor asked the Interstate Commerce Commission yesterday whether it would approve of negotiations with railroad companies for the establishment of excursion rates to Oklahoma, Missouri, Kansas and South Dakota, where thousands of men are needed to help harvest bumper grain crops. Labor commissioners of the four states have informed the department that about 400,000 men are required.

Secretary Wilson said he had been told some workmen had been charged $1 and $2 each for information that had been gathered by the department to meet the need of employment.

"In some places, and I have Cary, Ind., in mind now," said the secretary, "these men, many of whom are unacquainted with our language, not only are charged for the information, but the person doing so agrees to purchase railroad tickets. I am informed that over-charges for transportation are made, and in their ignorance of our language the poor people really believe they are being befriended."

At the same time, the secretary said, the department is endeavoring to get newspapers of the country printed in foreign languages to print announcements of working opportunities for the benefit of unemployed aliens.

HIS WIFE GONE HE TOSSES LIFE AWAY

Clutching Her Last Disheartening Letter, He Takes Gas on Anniversary.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16.—Saddened by the refusal of his wife to return to him and after receiving a chilling letter in which she renounced with him for having failed to keep his promises to her, Lawrence J. Lewis, a special police officer, committed suicide today on the first anniversary of his marriage.

Lewis, who lived at 3081 Sixteenth street, was found dead from gas asphyxiation at his home. Jack Lenev climbed through the transom and discovered that the tip had been removed.

In the hand of the dead man was a letter written by Mrs. Frances Lewis from Dinuba, in which she declared that the celebration of the anniversary of their marriage would cause her to look back on a year of misery instead of a happy one. She wrote one sorrow for her inability to return to Lewis because of her belief that he would not keep his promises to her. She also spoke of the expected birth of a child.

MAY 'ENLIVEN' THINGS FOR DIVORCED SPOUSE

The divorce proceedings of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Bledsoe, aired in the Oakland courts in 1912, were rehearsed yesterday by Mrs. B. H. Burns, who gives her address as 1415 Grove street, this city, and who is a sister of Mrs. Bledsoe. When Mrs. Burns learned late yesterday afternoon that her once brother-in-law had secured a license to wed Marie E. Rae, aged 25 years and living in San Francisco, she threatened interesting times, "insinuating that her sister, Bledsoe, and her divorcee as Jessie L. Bledsoe, and now a traveling saleswoman, could make things lively for her divorced spouse."

Bledsoe, who is a publisher and attorney in San Francisco, was divorced from his wife, Jessie L. Bledsoe, on March 24, 1913, and secured an interlocutory decree in April of that year. A final decree was granted the couple on April 29, 1914. In the course of the trial Bledsoe alleged that his wife neglected their two children and her household duties on account of her infidelity.

Mrs. Jessie L. Bledsoe resides in Berkeley, but is at present in Modesto.

HOLDS AL FRESCO COURT NEAR LAKE

Land Spots Around Historic Embarcadero Become Visualized.

Al fresco court was held today on the Embarcadero and Grand avenue by Police Judge R. P. Tappan, who had his court on horseback and in a boat, managing to lead Dame Justice out upon the high-ways and byways in an exceedingly familiar manner. The case was that of M. J. Harriman, charged with having run down Miss Marion Swayne, 222 Lake Shore boulevard, in his automobile.

Whether it was the warm atmosphere of the courtroom, or the noise of carpenters hammering in the city hall to complete the woodwork for the new structure, or the fact that every time Mrs. Frank McInnis, one of the witnesses, tried to tell how it happened, the attorneys for defense and prosecution asked her such a tangle of questions that she became confused and incoherent. Judge Tappan did this morning he hastily adjourned court to the open air.

"Let's go down to the Embarcadero," said the Judge. "We'll hold court there and look over the ground."

Defendant and complaining witness and Court Clerk Fred Donahue and Father Harry Gilbert were loaded into one automobile. Judge Tappan took several of the fairest witnesses with him in another machine. The attorneys followed on the street.

Court was reconvened in due order and ceremony on the shores of Lake Merritt.

The judge's concern was to transfer the passengers and freight to the lake and estuary barges. The judge took up his stand in the middle of the highway, causing all vehicles to be diverted during the session. Mrs. McInnis was told by the judge to disregard the lawyers, and with the court garrulous as to the value of the open air in clearing the brain of legal tangles, she disclaimed the accident.

As she had said it was her own fault, the court followed the witness, Tappan trailing in the wake of Mrs. McInnis, and hurried and perspiring attorneys following the judge. Exhibit A was set down as the curb, Exhibit B as a bump half way across the street, while an imaginary line between a tree and one of the pergola columns of the new boat landing was set down as Exhibit C.

"I think I see the whole thing now," said Tappan. "The girl was riding horseback down here, on the right side of the street. Along comes the auto and bumps her, knocking her off the horse and hurting her. The horse had to be shot. The auto was on the wrong side of the street. Well, I want to think it over, so court's adjourned till tomorrow. We'll go back to the courtroom then."

Tappan went in search of lunch and a book of law. The attorneys retired under a tree. R. B. Swayne, father of Miss Swayne, walked around the corner of his home. Court was over.

BURGLARS ARE BUSY; ONE WORKS AT FIRE

A microsome a rifle, a revolver and a pair of field-glasses were the loot taken by burglars who broke into the home of George Mormillo, 418 Twenty-third street, during the night. The burglars entered by breaking the glass of front window and unfastening the sash.

Following a small fire at the store of George Guiffre, 1119 Thirty-second street, which occurred early this morning, Guiffre, who had assisted in fighting the fire, missed the cash drawer in his cash register. The police were notified, but the thief had made good his escape in the confusion during the fire fighting. Corporal Pullman and Patrolman Willis searched the neighborhood for the thief. The drawer had $10 in it when it was removed.

SAYS HE MISREAD TRAIN ORDER, CAUSING WRECK

UPLANDS, Cal., June 16.—Misreading of orders caused the wreck of the Santa Fe eastbound limited Friday night at Uplands, in which two were killed and 23 injured. Testifying before a coroner's jury today, A. Holman, conductor of the freight train which ran on the siding when the limited dashed into it, declared he had misread the orders and that he thought he had plenty of time. A Pollock head brakeman of the freight train, whose duty it was to close the switch after the freight had run upon the siding, told the jury his watch was broken and that he thought he had plenty of time. A crane, engineer of the limited, said his train was traveling forty miles an hour when it dashed into the open switch and collided with the freight train.

ALL CITY HALL SITES TO BE PUT ON BALLOT

RICHMOND, June 16.—The various city hall sites and offers and the names of a board of fifteen freeholders to frame a new city charter will be done at the same election, according to the terms of the city council. It is expected that the definite date of the election and naming of election officers will be taken by the council next Monday evening. The council met Monday evening last evening discussing the city hall matter. City Attorney Hall has ruled that under the charter only resolutions and ordinances are matters of importance and that as all but one of the Wall features for a city hall site and building were made under a private contract, they cannot be taken before the people for a vote. Hall says that all of the Wall propositions may be placed on a ticket, however, if the council should so decide by ordinance. Under the present plan of the council there will be about a half dozen sites on the ballot.

SUPREME COURT UPHOLDS HOSMER'S CONVICTION

SALEM, Ore., June 16.—The conviction of J. H. Hosmer, editor of the Silverton Journal in the State Supreme Court here several months ago for unlawfully libeling the priors of the Benedictine convent of Mount Angel, was affirmed by the State Supreme Court here today. Hosmer's offense consisted in the publication of an article in a pamphlet with relation to an alleged letter from the convent of Miss Mary Leston.

According to the article, Miss Leston came to the Christian Church of Oregon in June last year and told the pastor and four of his parishioners that she had been kidnapped in Portland and made a prisoner in the convent. During her incarceration, it was said, she was abused by the priests and the Mother Superior.

The Right Piano or Player Piano and the Right Store---

What assurance have you after you have purchased a Piano on which a reduction of from fifty to one hundred and fifty dollars has been made that you have really bought at the bottom price? How are you to know that the next buyer who happens in will not get an additional twenty-five or fifty dollars' reduction?

Does it seem reasonable to you that an instrument built to sell at a certain price can be actually sold at HALF PRICE, or at any of the other sensational reductions frequently advertised?

Bear in mind this fact—no merchant sells his goods at a loss, and the Piano that is offered at a reduction of one-third to one-half off is a dangerous and unsafe investment at any price. It is built to deceive, sold by dealers whose policy is to charge all the traffic will bear and who do not hesitate to take advantage of the fact that the average buyer is unskilled in piano construction and the quality of materials.

The right Piano or Player-Piano is the product of a factory which has established its reputation by the merit and quality of the instruments it manufactures.

THE RIGHT STORE OFFERS YOU A FAIR PRICE EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR

Because we respect the intelligence of the buying public and because we know no other method than to deal fairly, squarely and out in the open, you may rest your case with us with the positive assurance that you will get the right Piano or Player-Piano in the best instrument possible at the price paid.

MEDIATION AGAIN DELAYS

Negotiations Halt Over New Mexican Government

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., June 15.—The American commissioners motored over to Buffalo this afternoon to confer with representatives of General Carranza. Nothing was known of their departure from Niagara Falls until about the time they were due to return. They expect to obtain the names of prominent Mexicans that the Constitutionalists will be willing to have selected as provisional president.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Secretary Bryan was still hopeful today of the ultimate success of mediation, despite the developments at the Niagara conference. When he went to the Cabinet meeting this morning, he reported that the situation would shape itself that the Constitutionalists would participate in the mediation proceedings in some form. The general opinion in official circles was that mediation was again confronted with a period of delay and uncertainty.

Temporary suspension of formal conferences at Niagara Falls, among the mediators and the American and Huerta delegates during the absence of the Argentine minister, gave President Wilson and Secretary Bryan additional time for consideration of the situation. Government officials were said to have names of eligibles through Constitutionalists in Washington. During the absence of the Argentine minister, the president and his advisers hoped to make headway over the problem of personnel of the new government that would materially relieve immediate tension in the negotiations.

CARRANZA IS OUT

Chances that Carranza might become a party to the present proceedings apparently were dissipated by the dispatch of the Argentine minister to the Constitutionalists. They told Carranza they feared he "had not fully considered" their communication containing a request for an armistice with Huerta. Carranza had declared he would not agree to a truce, and that he would not agree to any further correspondence between the mediators and the revolutionist leader.

That development, not entirely unexpected, caused little change in the diplomatic situation so far as the United States was concerned. However, in some quarters it was suggested that the closing of the doors to the Constitutionalists might change the Washington government's chances of obtaining Carranza's consent to the drafting of a peace treaty which he would have had no part in.

BUT NOT IGNORED

On the other hand, the insistence of the American delegates that a Constitutionalists ally or a man with Constitutional sympathies be named for Provisional President, was pointed to as showing that the interests of the northern faction were receiving full consideration. The mediators have declared they were carefully weighing the situation.

AGGRESSIVE STILL

Men in close touch with the Constitutionalists declared that the ill-fortune Carranza's troops "encountered" in the investment of Zacatecas speedily was being met by the arrival of reinforcements hurrying from the north. They discredited Federal reports that General Naterin, in command of the besieging army, had been wounded.

SPRECKELS SENDS FOND HOPE AWRY

Progressive Rumor That Johnson Would Receive Support Goes Aglimmering.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16.—Any idea on the part of the Progressives that Rudolph Spreckels will throw his support to the candidacy of Governor Johnson in the coming campaign went aglimmering at Sonoma the other day when many of the "Who's Who" in things public hereabouts gathered for the Bear Flag ceremonies under the auspices of the Native Sons and Daughters. The two former reformers of the old San Francisco graft prosecution came face to face with their mutual friend, James D. Phelan, between them. But, according to those who stood in the lobby of the hotel, there was not a mutual recognition. Neither spoke to the other.

In view of rumors that Spreckels would rally to Johnson at this time, the meeting between the two men was closely watched and the outcome was far from what the expectations had been, it is said.

ST. PAUL, June 16.—With the race for the Republican gubernatorial nomination between Governor A. O. Eberhart and W. E. Lee the outstanding feature, Minnesota held a state-wide primary today to nominate a full slate of representatives to the legislature, and state senators and representatives.

CONCERNING DR. SHAW AND MARRIAGE SERVICE

Pioneer Suffragist Would Reform Ritual, but
No Alternative Is Offered

(By BETTY MARTIN.)

It is not so many years ago since the Rev. Dr. Anna Shaw stood before an Oakland audience composed mostly of women and announced that she had made an important discovery. Then, beaming with smiles, this lady, who had not at that time reached the zenith of her fame, said a word into nothing more nor less than a capacious pocket on either side of the front width of her tailored skirt.

Happy as a schoolboy with his first pair of pants, the Doctor stood there, rejoicing in her pockets—her "discovery" as she called it. Other women might have hesitated to introduce pockets at the sides of their skirts, for the simple reason that pockets bulge, and have an uncomfortable habit of spoiling the set of a skirt. But not so Anna. She just loved those pockets of hers, and pointed to them with a sense of pride—they were the symbol of her emancipation, so to speak, the wedge which separated her from other women.

Never again, so declared the lady, would it be necessary for her to hunt around in a messy bag for the necessary fare with which to pay the conductor, never again would she have to hunt for a handkerchief when she wanted to use that indispensable bit of cambric linen never again would it be necessary to dump the entire contents of her bag in order to find her keys, never again would she have to fish for her card case, never again search for her powder puff, and that she had let the bag containing all these needed articles on the desk of some bargain counter, where in the mad rush for a piece of silk which had been marked down to one yard, she had forgotten that she ever had a bag at all.

TROUBLES ENDED.
Hereafter, the Rev. Anna declared, she would be free from all the vexations which mar the life of other women when they go forth. In her pockets and her pockets alone, she would carry all she needed. And deliver she did. But the lure of the discovery has grown upon Miss Shaw, since the days of her pockets. She has become emancipated in many things. In the first place, she is a minister of the gospel. More, she was among the pioneer women ministers, for plenty there were to follow her example.

Again, Miss Shaw is a believer in equal suffrage. There is nothing strange about that, however, for countless thousands of women are suffragists, but in this move Miss Shaw was again a pioneer. Hand in hand with Miss Susan B. Anthony, Miss Shaw has led the quietest congress which recently held forth in some representative of our countrywomen of the United States on behalf of this question of equal rights. All pioneering in these causes are over now, however, and the Rev. Dr. feels it obligatory to pioneer another reform.

Neither pockets, religion nor politics are engaging Dr. Shaw's attention these days, at least, not to any perceptible extent. But the time honored marriage ritual, about which the average mortal married or single, cares little at all, on the assumption that what was "good enough for Dad is good enough for me," remains still good for the majority.

According to the learned doctor, who has made a study of the service, and who has united countless couples in the holy bonds, this marriage service of ours has outlived its usefulness, and should be relegated to oblivion.

NOT ENEMY OF MATRIMONY.
It must not be understood that Miss Shaw desires to cast any aspersions on the marriage relation itself. Far from it! The doctor knows, beyond peradventure, that no marriage is so good as that which is entered into with a true heart and a true mind. It is a safe bet, too, that there are thousands in waiting who would be only too happy of the chance to go and do likewise. No, Miss Shaw does not set

WOMAN COULD HARDLY STAND

Because of Terrible Backache. Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I suffered from displacement and inflammation, and had such pains in my sides, and terrible backache, so that I could hardly stand. I took six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now I can do any amount of work, sleep good, eat good, and don't have a bit of trouble. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to every suffering woman."—Mrs. HARRY FISHER, 1642 Juniata Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Another Woman's Case. Providence, R. I.—"I cannot speak too highly of your Vegetable Compound as it has done wonders for me and I would not be without it. I had a displacement, bearing down, and backache, until I could hardly stand and was thoroughly run down when I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helped me and I am in the best of health at present. I work in a factory all day long besides doing my housework so you can see what it has done for me. I give you permission to publish my name and I speak of your Vegetable Compound to many of my friends."—Mrs. ARTHUR LAWSON, 126 Lippitt St., Providence, R. I.

Danger Signals to Women are what one physician called backache, headache, nervousness, and the blues. In many cases they are symptoms of some female derangement or an inflammatory, ulcerative condition, which may be overcome by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Thousands of American women willingly testify to its virtue.

VALLEJO PLANS NEW LIQUOR LAW

Proposed Ordinance Will Fix Licenses on Clubs and Stores.

VALLEJO, June 16.—The new liquor ordinance which has been in the course of preparation for some time, has been completed by City Attorney W. T. O'Donnell and turned over to Commissioner of Public Health and Safety W. P. Blake, who will request the city council this morning to set some afternoon aside for the purpose of going over the ordinance before it is introduced for the first reading.

The proposed ordinance will make a number of important changes in the way retail liquor dealers have been compelled to pay a license but in future wholesalers, restaurants, grocery stores, social clubs and such others as may sell liquor will be compelled to secure licenses.

VALLEJO HAS BUT FEW FIRES, ENGINEERS REPORT

VALLEJO, June 16.—Vallejo has been fortunate in the matter of fires during the past year, but 26 alarms having disturbed the fire department from July, 1912, to June, 1913. The annual report of Chief Engineer J. A. Brophy, just filed with Commissioner of Public Health and Safety W. P. Blake, shows that the city hall bell sounded 20 of these alarms while 6 were still alarms sent into the fire department headquarters. The amount of property involved in the 26 fires was $14,340, and the loss to buildings amounted to $45,000. The damage to contents was $24,25. During the five months that the motor driven hose and chemical wagon has been in service it has answered seven calls, and controlled all but one of the fires, the latter having had too much headway before the alarm was turned in. The cost of maintaining the motor apparatus for five months was $25.43, divided as follows: Gasoline, $12.50; oil and grease, $4.30; polish, $1.25; waste, $1; incidentals, $6.05. To maintain two horses for fire department service for the same period cost $1.00. It is easy to figure out the great saving in the motor apparatus.

HEARING IS STARTED ON PLANT VALUATION

Estimates submitted by State Engineer F. S. Burroughs placed the actual cost, less deductions and depreciation, at $4,011,519, and the cost of reproduction at $4,232,151. Engineer W. J. Hagenson, for the company, estimated the reproduction cost at $4,638,328 and the total going value at $5,568,844. The state engineer allowed nothing for water power, which the company engineer valued at $700,000.

EMINENT N. Y. JURIST DIES OF HEART DISEASE

LITCHFIELD, Conn., June 16.—William Butler Hornblower, associate judge of the New York court of appeals, died today of myocarditis. He had been ill for a long time.

Judge Hornblower was regarded as one of the most eminent lawyers in New York state. Before his appointment to the court of appeals in February he had spent much of his time in recent years as a writer and lecturer on legal topics. Grover Cleveland, when President, appointed Hornblower to the supreme court of the United States, but because of a factional fight in the United States Senate the nominee failed of confirmation. Judge Hornblower was born May 13, 1851.

CARD INDEX PLAN

LIKE BIOGRAPHY

The System of Registration in Great Britain Would Record All Life Events.

LONDON, June 16.—"A marriage has been arranged and will shortly take place between Mr. 96,427,242 Schedule K, of Ratcliffe-on-the-Wreake, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. 97,643,922 Class X, and Alicia Estelle 47,392,641 Form A1, daughter of Mr. 92,476,547 and the Hon. Mrs. 92,476,547, and granddaughter of the late Earl of 13." — or "We regret to announce the death of Mr. 176,932 File Q, which occurred last night at the residence of his parents Mr. and Mrs. 64,985,270 ditto, after a brief illness."

With the adoption of the card index system of registration by number of every inhabitant of Great Britain, seriously advocated before the Royal Statistical Society by Walter Hazell, former member of Parliament, such would become the style of items in the department of the British press devoted to social and obituary intelligence. Under Hazell's scheme, which the society is now giving careful consideration, no one could be born, married, have children, be divorced or arrested, go mad, die, or be buried without procuring his so-called life card and having the event duly recorded thereon. Every card with its duplicate filed in Gomerset House, London, would bear cross references giving the names and numbers of the holder's parents and children. Aside from the obvious advantage to police in identifying criminals, Hazell claims that his system would greatly assist in tracing lost heirs, would facilitate legislation in regard to estates, would enable a woman to ascertain in a moment whether her intended husband has a wife living, would prevent things under false names, would forestall the marriage of minors who falsify their ages, and correct the errors of the census.

By utilizing the government's present organization of births for the registration of births, marriages and deaths, Hazell figures that the entire cost would be not more than $70,000 a year.

RAILWAY PROBLEMS

ARE BEING SOLVED

Common Basis of Understanding Between Government and Roads.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 16.—That a common basis of understanding gradually is being reached between the government and the railways and that "the many problems that have arisen in this connection" eventually will be solved without serious inconvenience, was the assertion of D. R. McBain, of Cleveland, president of the American Railway Master Mechanics' Association, in his annual address yesterday at the opening session of that organization's convention.

"The past year," he said, "has made its mark in the way of legislation and regulation, but thus far, though materially adding to our burdens, we seem to have assimilated the new things in part, at least, and the prospects seem to be good that the new problems will eventually be solved with satisfaction to both parties concerned."

Representatives of the federal government and the governments of various states have been of great value in associating us on a common, workable plane."

Much attention was paid various speakers to the use of mechanical rollers on locomotives, and D. F. Crawford, president of the Master Car Builders, predicted that the time was coming when the manufacturers of locomotives would recognize the roller as an integral product of their product.

"TATTOOED BANDIT" IS CONVICTED OF MURDER
MT VERNON, Wash. June 16.—Charles Hopkins, known in the northwest as the "tattooed bandit," was convicted in the Superior court here yesterday on a charge of murder in the first degree, and was sentenced to serve a term of twenty years. Hopkins was charged with the murder of Antoine Olson near McMurray, on the night of March 28. The words "true love" tattooed on the fingers of his hands gave him the name by which he is known, and proved a means by which the authorities traced and captured him.

ANTI-KAMNIA TABLETS

FOR ALL PAIN

"The efficiency of any drug" says Dr. C. P. Robbins, "is known to us by the results we obtain from its use. If we are able to control pain and disease by means of any preparation, we certainly are warranted in its use. One of the principal symptoms of all diseases is pain, and this is what the patient most often applies to us for, i. e. something to relieve his pain. If we can arrest this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust in us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-Kamnia Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I have put them to the test on many occasions, and have never been disappointed. I found them especially valuable for headaches of insidious origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. Anti-Kamnia Tablets are also excellent for the headaches from improper digestion; also for headaches of a neuritic origin, and especially for women subjected to certain times. Two Anti-Kamnia Tablets give prompt relief, and in a short time the patient is able to go about as usual. These tablets may be obtained at all druggists. Ask for A-K Tablets. They are also unexcelled for rheumatism and neuralgia. It is a wonderful remedy for pain diseases."

Thin People Can Increase Weight

This men and women who would like to increase their weight with 10 or 15 pounds of healthy "fat" there is a remedy. Try eating a little Sargol with their meals for a while and note results. Here is a good test worth trying. First weigh yourself and measure yourself. Then take Sargol—one tablet with every meal—for two weeks. Then weigh and measure again. Ask a question of your friends and you will find that the tape measure will tell their own story, and most any thin man or woman can easily add from five to eight pounds in the first fourteen days by following this simple direction. And best of all, the new flesh stays put.

Sargol does not make fat, but builds with your food. It turns the waste into rich, ripe fat producing nourishment for the tissues and blood—prevents it in an easily assimilated form which the blood can readily accept. All this nourishment now comes from your body as it is. But Sargol stops the waste and does it. Sargol makes the body's own food. Sargol makes the body's own food. Sargol makes the body's own food.

Thousands of healthy people between 15 and 60 years of age are suffering from thinness and weakness. Sargol is safe, efficient and inexpensive. One box costs three dollars and one leading

TEACHERS WILL TRAMP PLAN OVER-HILL TOUR

MISS FANNIE McLEAN, WHO, WITH MRS. LOUISE HOWARD, IS TRAMPING TO YOSEMITE.

BERKELEY WOMEN PLAN BIG FEAT TO HOLD MEETING

Yosemite Is Destination; Steep Mountain Trails the Route.

BERKELEY, June 16.—Across the rocky fortresses of northern Mariposa county two teachers of the Berkeley high school, Miss Fannie McLean and Mrs. Louise Howard, have announced their intention to tramp the mountain trails to Yosemite. Their route is not long, measured horizontally, they have, however, to cross so much rough country as to make it a considerable feat for feminine achievement.

Miss McLean is head of the English department of the high school, while Mrs. Howard heads the French and Spanish classes. At the close of the school term they went to a mining property, owned by Miss McLean, near Coltonville in the northern part of Mariposa. Here they camped in regular frontier fashion until ready for their tramp into the valley, which they started this week.

The two teachers plan to take the journey by easy stages, carrying their supplies with them and camping only when necessary. Rough trails and meandering mountain roads furnish the route for their journey. They expect to spend some time in the Yosemite before returning to Berkeley.

PLANS NEW HOME FOR SEMINARY

Wellesley School, Formerly Snell's, to Erect Building to Cost $60,000.

BERKELEY, June 16.—A school for girls to cost $60,000 is shortly to be erected by the Wellesley Seminary, according to plans announced today by Dr. Adelaide Smith, principal of the Wellesley school of this city. Dr. Smith is the successor of Mrs. Sarah Snell-Poulson, one of several sisters who last night have been known here and in Benicia the well-known Snell's seminary.

Dr. Smith has not yet announced where the new campus will be laid out except that it is expected to be ready for occupancy by the opening of the fall semester next year. A company is to be organized and incorporated to carry on the work of the establishment.

Miss Mary Snell, who enjoyed a considerable reputation in the west as a teacher, founded the seminary at Benicia in 1874, removing it soon afterwards to this city. She conducted the institution for many years and up to the time of her death, which was succeeded in its management by Mrs. Poulson. Mrs. Poulson's death occurred in turn a little less than two years ago, after she had been chief of staff. The Snell heirs have now withdrawn from the school, Dr. Smith has been elected principal of the Wellesley and plans its enlargement.

The fall term this year of the institution is to open on August 15. In addition to the faculty will be Miss Mary Hatch, formerly of Wellesley college, who has assisted for the past two years in training the University of California women for the dances in which they have participated in the annual Panhellenia.

It is expected to be ready for occupancy by the opening of the fall semester next year. A company is to be organized and incorporated to carry on the work of the establishment.

Miss Mary Snell, who enjoyed a considerable reputation in the west as a teacher, founded the seminary at Benicia in 1874, removing it soon afterwards to this city. She conducted the institution for many years and up to the time of her death, which was succeeded in its management by Mrs. Poulson. Mrs. Poulson's death occurred in turn a little less than two years ago, after she had been chief of staff. The Snell heirs have now withdrawn from the school, Dr. Smith has been elected principal of the Wellesley and plans its enlargement.

The fall term this year of the institution is to open on August 15. In addition to the faculty will be Miss Mary Hatch, formerly of Wellesley college, who has assisted for the past two years in training the University of California women for the dances in which they have participated in the annual Panhellenia.

BERKELEY BOND ISSUE ASSURED

Mayor Heywood Musters Votes Sufficient to Insure Passage.

BERKELEY, June 16.—All doubt was set at rest this morning at the council meeting as to the probability of a bond call for schools, civic center, and harbor bonds, when Mayor Heywood was able to muster three votes in favor of the bonds, in addition to his own.

Commissioner E. Q. Turner presented the necessary ordinance of an issue of $1,000,000. The resolution received the support of all the members of the council except Commissioner John A. Wilson.

Wilson reiterated his previous objection that the calling for school bonds by the council would prevent any assessment for that purpose upon the Ocean View precinct, which is outside of the council's jurisdiction, but was within the school district.

City Attorney Frank Connelley is to have the necessary papers ready for adoption at the council meeting, Friday morning. The street question may be considered by the council, having been acted upon in committee of the whole meeting last night. The council voted by five to two to improve the streets at the expense of abutting property owners.

The city attorney and city engineers directed to draw up plans and specifications for the improvement of Central avenue, from Fourth street to Park street, and Lincoln avenue, from Sherman to Park street.

Following this action a mass meeting was held by Central avenue property owners as a protest against direct assessment. Protests are now being circulated among the property owners, and these may be presented this evening.

The council will also take up the matter of school licenses this evening. Applications have been received with the required number of signatures. The city clerk has checked the signatures and found them to be correct.

Too Much Alcohol of Wrong Kind Has Painter in Hospital

BERKELEY, June 16.—John McLeod of 1528 Josephine street will be the most careful man in the world hereafter in handling alcohol. Today he is at Roosevelt hospital recovering from the effects of too much of the wrong kind. He is a painter and was using wood alcohol in his work. He swallowed a bit of it by way of refreshment, but it didn't refresh in the accustomed manner. When he came to at the hospital he was under the impression that Mr. Lassen had been in active service somewhere in his person. By the first of the week the doctors think he may go back to work.

WRECK INQUIRY ON

Empress of Ireland Disaster Is Under Investigation at Quebec.

QUEBEC, June 16.—With practically all the witnesses and a host of counsel in attendance, the court of inquiry, under the presidency of Lord Hervey, the distinguished British jurist, begins today its investigation of the disaster in the St. Lawrence river in which the Canadian Pacific steamer Empress of Ireland sank and more than 1000 persons lost their lives. The inquiry is expected to center about two main points, these being the question of the international rules governing or rather preventing collisions, and the action taken by the captain of the Storstad, the steamer which collided with the Empress of Ireland, subsequent to the disaster. It is expected that counsel for the owners and officers of the Storstad will contend that when the two vessels sighted each other the Storstad was off the starboard bow of the Empress of Ireland, and, according to the rules of the sea, the Canadian Pacific liner was bound to keep out of her way.

LIVER GOING DOWN STREAM. Emphasis may also be laid on the fact that the faster vessel, the Empress of Ireland, was going down stream and the Storstad coming up. As to events following the collision the representatives for the Storstad will offer testimony to show that the collision whistled repeatedly to the Empress, but received no reply and the immediately lowered boats to engage in the work of rescue. The government has subpoenaed between sixty and seventy witnesses and the inquiry is expected to be in session a week.

OUTLINES CASE. The examination of witnesses was in charge of Edmund L. Newcombe, K. C., deputy minister of justice. The Canadian Pacific Railroad, owners of the Empress, placed its case in the care of Butler, Asplund, K. C., London, Eng., and several local lawyers. Counsel for Captain Kendall and the officers and crew of the Empress were Alvin G. Beecher, K. C., Montreal, and A. C. M. Thompson, Quebec. The Storstad's owners relied on C. A. Duckles, Montreal; J. W. Griffin and C. S. Haigh, New York, both members of the United States admiralty, Norman Beecher, New York, and Arthur Fitzpatrick, Quebec.

NEWCOMBE opened by outlining the salient features of the foundering of the Empress, as at present known. ANOTHER WRECK INQUIRY. NEW YORK, June 16.—Captain W. J. Roberts, his officers and crew of the Empress of Ireland, who were on lookout duty at the time of the collision between the New York and the Pretoria early last Saturday morning, were among witnesses called in the inquiry begun today by the board of inquiry into the disaster. Another inquiry will be held in Hamburg, where officers of the Pretoria will testify. The inquiry here will not decide which ship was to blame for the collision. As the officers of the New York are American and she is an American vessel, the inquiry will determine merely whether their certificates should be suspended or withdrawn. The inspectors have no authority over the captain of the Pretoria, as that ship is under the German flag. Captain Roberts made formal report yesterday to P. A. S. Franklin, president and general manager of the International Mercantile Marine Company, on the collision. According to the report, the vessels met in longitude 64.50, where they should have been twenty-eight miles apart, the distance between the east and westbound lines. Chart observations showed roughly that the Pretoria was twenty-one miles north of her regular eastbound course and the New York was seven miles south of the westbound course.

GUARDS AT RACES

Precautions Taken to Keep the Suffragettes Away From Royalty at Ascot.

LONDON, June 16.—Never before have such precautions been taken to guard members of the royal family today at the Ascot race course. The opening of the leading society race meeting found more than 1000 London policemen and hundreds of detectives from Scotland Yard assembled on the historic course as reinforcements for the regular Berkshire county police force, which had been mobilized in full strength. The six-mile route from Windsor Castle to the course was lined all the way by policemen.

The military in suits of the queen's threat to cancel the rest of the season's social engagements, showed themselves more determined than ever to obtain publicity for their cause by attacking the king. The arrangements for guarding the entrance to the royal enclosure were more stringent than ever. Every applicant for a ticket had to be vouched for by some responsible official. The track was closely guarded and there were some triple rails to prevent any unauthorized persons from reaching it. For several days and nights men accompanied by watch dogs have patrolled the course and alarm guns have been placed in position around the stands and lawns.

A large contingent of resident Americans were among those invited to the Royal enclosure. These included Walter Hines Page, the American ambassador, and Mrs. Page, with the members of the embassy staff; Mrs. Nicholas Longworth; Philip J. Roosevelt, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt and Colonel Edward M. House of Texas. The Daily Mail asserts that a suffragette plot was disclosed to the authorities last night to blow up the reservoirs at Woolwich, which supply a large section of eastern London with water. A strong force of police was detailed to protect them.

ORGANIZE PATROLS. As a means of circumventing the military suffragette "arson squads," the county authorities throughout England have started the organization of volunteer civilian patrols, whose first duty will be the protection of churches. The volunteers are to be sworn in as special constables. They will be armed and accompanied by dogs.

Search for Collateral OF Closed Bank

CHICAGO, June 16.—Officials of the state banking department today continued their examination of records of the La Salle Street Trust and Savings Bank, which was closed last Friday. Particular attention was paid by D. V. Harkin, chief bank examiner, to a search for collateral which secured notes found in the bank. No estimate of the value of the securities in the bank's vaults has been made, but it is expected that the examination will be completed by the end of the week. The report, it was declared, would show what securities, if any, had been transferred as collateral from the La Salle Street Bank to the Broadway State Bank, the Ashland-Twelfth Street Bank, the Illinois State Bank and the State Bank of Calumet, smaller institutions of what was known as the Lorimer-Munday chain of banks which were taken in charge by the state officials after the La Salle street bank was closed.

Artillery Duel at Capital at Albania

DURAZZO, Albania, June 16.—Another attack on the Albanian capital was made by Muslim insurgents when heavy artillery was brought to bear on the defending forces commanded by Prince William. The guns of the attacking force were soon located in the vicinity of Rastul and the artillerymen in the garrison quickly found the range. The opposing forces then engaged in a long-range artillery duel. Detachments of troops from the international fleet flying over the coast took up positions in the neighborhood of the erected barricades around the royal palace. Several Albanian boats destroyed were started on the day for Durazzo to embark 1500 Muslim tribesmen loyal to Prince William's government, to reinforce the garrison of the capital.

DISCUSS BUTTE SITUATION AT WHITE HOUSE

WHITE HOUSE

Montana Delegation in Congress Doesn't Urge Troops.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Senator Ames and Representative Stewart of Montana went to the White House today in connection with the request of Governor Stewart that President Wilson send federal troops to quell disorders at Butte between members of the Western Federation of Miners and the Industrial Workers of the World. In view of the apparent quiet conditions in Butte today the Montana delegation did not press for the immediate sending of troops, but made an engagement to see President Wilson tomorrow and discuss the entire situation with him.

SEEK PEACE AMONG FACTIONS.

BUTTE, Mont., June 16.—With the regular meeting of the miners' union scheduled for tonight, the situation here as the result of that organization's factional riot is quiet, but tense. Every effort is being made to bring the opposing factions together. It has been learned from unofficial sources that committees of five men each have been appointed by the leaders in the union and the secessionists for a conference this afternoon. This meeting was arranged for through the efforts of M. M. Donohue, president of the state Federation of Labor. The propositions to be submitted to the conference with a view to bringing back the secessionists into the organization are:

The abandonment of all the records of the old union except the charter from the Western Federation of Miners and the contract with the employing companies; the reuniting of the union offices; an immediate open election at which all miners would be entitled to vote regardless of arrears in dues or assessments; immediate installation of officers so elected; this to be followed by a full vote of miners should the question of retaining the charter of the Western Federation.

If the membership votes to return the charter to the federation the miners are to proceed alone as an independent union.

TO VOTE TOMORROW.

In the meantime the secessionists will continue the program they have laid out, beginning with the taking of referendum vote tomorrow on the question of showing Western Federation cards at the mines. Tomorrow morning the miners are expected to appear at the polls. He was grousing over the statements from Washington that he had asked that federal troops be sent to Butte. The governor declared that his message to Washington simply asked regarding the disposition of federal troops with a view to finding out whether troops could be secured should conditions here become serious.

Disaster to Balloon Now Seems Certain

PORTLAND, Ore., June 16.—That disaster in some form loomed over the crew of the balloon Springfield, which vanished after having left here Tuesday with three other balloons, seemed certain early today. Yesterday and last night an organized search over the Andry River district, where the balloon was reported seen Friday morning, proved fruitless. Today additional searching parties left for points to the south and west of here. The three other balloons in the race, the Uncle Sam, Million Population Club and Kansas City III, were wrecked in their descent while their pilots and aides narrowly escaped with their lives.

RUSH LEGISLATION

Democratic Leaders Heed Wilson's Order for Anti-Trust Laws.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The Democratic leaders in the Senate prepared today to push to completion the administration's program of anti-trust legislation. This course was planned as the result of a conference between President Wilson and leaders among the Senate Democrats at the White House last night, at which the legislation the President wants enacted before adjournment of Congress was discussed. The only measures on the program, the enactment of which will be signed up, are the anti-trust bills already passed by the House or similar measures. It was generally agreed at the conference that Congress should be kept in session until the anti-trust program is put through, despite the anxiety in Congress for an early adjournment.

URGES CARRYING OUT PROGRAM.

The President, in outlining his position, told the Senators that while he also was anxious for an early adjournment, yet he strongly felt that the anti-trust program should be enacted during the present session. That rapid progress was being made on the anti-trust bills now under consideration by Senate committees was the report made to the President by the Democratic leaders, and it was generally conceded by the conferees that there should be little difficulty in getting the measures reported to the Senate and passed by that body. President Wilson's declaration that despite what he characterized as a deliberate campaign by certain interests for an adjournment of Congress and postponement of the administration's program, he would use every influence at his command to get the pending bills through the Senate at this session, continued today to be the subject of widespread comment in Congress. It was believed the President's declaration would hasten action on the anti-trust measures in the Senate.

HURRY WORK ON BILLS.

The President's attitude against any adjournment without enacting the trust bills had an immediate effect on the Senate. The members began hurrying work on the bills and turning up the legislative machinery all along the line. Most of the Senators are eager for a midsummer adjournment. Democratic Leader Kern said he thought the trust program could be disposed of so Congress could adjourn before August 1, and he expected no opposition from the Republicans.

LEARNED A LESSON

American Satisfied Longing to See Inside of King's Palace.

They say women are curious, but no woman ever got into trouble by breaking into a palace to see what it's like. I'm glad he's out and hope he'll come to America, where there aren't any king's palaces to break into. declared Mrs. George Pike, wife of the man who invaded Buckingham Palace, and who was according to news received by her last night, released from police custody at the request of the king, who, when it was discovered that he meant no harm, requested that he be dealt with leniently. Pike, it is declared, was curious to see how royalty lived and invaded the palace, only to be arrested. "George will be all right when he gets to this country," declared Mrs. Pike. "I think he won't be curious any more now, and I am much relieved to hear that he got out of it all right. It was a fearful thing for him." Mrs. Pike is housekeeper for Mrs. Edgar L. Ormsby of Oakland, wife of the prominent Democratic politician. She has been in this country some time and declares that her husband was planning to join her at the time of his arrest. She is now awaiting a letter from him which she expects will clear up the matter.

Increase During Eleven Months Reported at 11,000

Entire State Grows in Population, Nearing 3,000,000 Mark

The population of Alameda County, California, according to figures just compiled by Secretary of State Frank Jordan, has increased during the last year by 295,538 people in its boundaries.

The entire state has gained 190,279 over last year's figure. San Francisco county lays claim to an increase of less than 8000.

Sacramento made a gain of 2217 in eleven months, according to Jordan's estimates.

Los Angeles county made a larger gain by far than San Francisco, increasing 33,505 in the same time it took San Francisco to make a gain of 1607.

The counties not connected by rail or interurban electric lines noticed very small gains. For instance, Del Norte county, which has nothing but stage and steamer communication with the outside world, gained one in eleven months.

FIGURE FITZSIMMONS IS RISKING TOO MUCH AGAINST MOORE

Husky Little Puncher With the Knocker-Out.

(BY THE TIMEKEEPER.)

The Wheelmen Club will offer its monthly treat to the Oakland fight fans tomorrow night in a ten-round match between Roy Moore, the best of San Francisco featherweights, and Willie Fitzsimmons, who recently beat Monte Attell.

After a "damaging" punch, whether Willie will be able to stand under the onslaught of the little Scotchman from across the bay is a question and if Fitzsimmons gets away with a clean-cut victory, it will be no more to him. Jimmy Bohan, the local promoter, has already wired to featherweight champion, Johnny Kibane, for terms to meet Willie, and a crack at the champion is just what the latter is looking for.

The betting so far has favored Moore at 10-9, and those backing the visitor are money. Charley Cleaver, who is managing Moore has bet $500 on his boy, and is of the opinion that he will not only win but also knock out Fitzsimmons. He never says what he is going to do. He is a quiet little fellow, who trains hard and says little, but when the going gets tough, he makes a horse hit for that bout with Kibane. Besides all the chances which will be given the winner, the coast championship which is now held by Moore will go with the victor.

A ten-round event has been carded between George Christian and Willie Meehan, and should furnish plenty of action. The boys met last week at the West Oakland show in a six-round bout, and certainly worked hard. The discovery of a knockout punch by Willie Meehan has put a new aspect on the outcome of this bout. Meehan says he will knock Christian out, and Christian says he will watch the referee count ten over Meehan. What's more, both of them believe what they say.

Kid Nabisco and Tony Freitas, two of the best among the local bantams, will box six rounds. Their last meeting was over the four-round route, and was a draw, but both the boys claim that the extra two rounds will mean a victory.

Whitely Smith, the newboy idol, who beat Nabisco recently in a four-round bout, will meet Willie Hoppe the second, in a four-round bout. Whitely is a head and a good right, but Willie is a tearing-in fighter.

Bosco from Brazil and Kid Lucky will have four rounds. The contest will be the comedy of the evening.

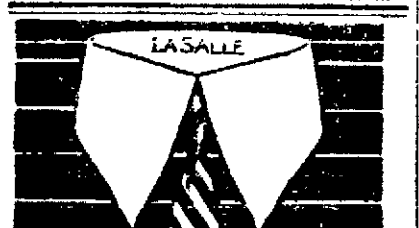

After knocking out Jack Carroll last Friday night, Willie was so happy that he turned out of the ring and made a new line for his dressing room. His trousers followed and found Willie shadow boxing. The bunch looked him over and tossed a coin to see who would go after the doctor. When they at last questioned Willie about his actions, he told them that he was in a hurry to get to his dressing room to meet at Boston's Wednesday night. Willie is as happy as a kid with a new toy, over his first knockout.

Jack Dillon seems to be climbing quite rapidly through the ranks of the light heavies. He got a twelve-round verdict yesterday at Butte over Bob Mohn, the California champion, and is expected to return and the twelfth, the others being even.

Immediately upon the arrival here today of Fighting Billy Murray and his manager Jack Kearns, the party was scheduled to go to San Francisco and there establish himself in preparation for the bout with George Chip in July. Chip is expected across the bay tomorrow and will take up his training at Millett's Colma resort.

Bill Schaffer, the Vallejo heavyweight, will swap punches with "Battling" Lewis in San Francisco next Friday night in place of Al Kaufman. The prize will be $10,000 and the fight will be a real draw to the Dick H. and Say's Saladore bout.

Charlie Grande has been matched for a ten-round bout at Oakland July 4 with a lightweight named Bob Gray.

O, Yes! Polo Is Quite an Exhilarating Game!

RAIN IMPROVES FIELD AND GREAT MATCH IS ANTICIPATED

Switch of Waterbury and Milburn May Bring U. S. Victory.

MEADOWBROOK CLUB, Westbury, L. I., June 16.—The international polo field was in fine shape this forenoon and an event was made at 4 o'clock more rain between now and 4 o'clock, the second game between America and England would be played. Last night's rain, it was said, improved the condition of the field. An army of workmen began rolling and tamping the turf soon after midnight. A heavy rain had been predicted for this morning, but the field would be dry and fast by game time, 4:30 o'clock.

Though far from sanguine, the American four hoped to show decided reversal of form as compared with Saturday's poor showing. The lineup of the two teams was:

England—No. 1 Captain H. Tomkinson, No. 2, Captain H. St. C. Cheape; No. 3, Major F. W. Barrett, back, Captain Vivian Lookett, substitutes, Lord, Wilmot, John A. Trull.

American—No. 1, Rene La Montagne; No. 2, J. M. Waterbury, No. 3, J. M. Waterbury, back, Captain Vivian Lookett, substitutes, Lord, Wilmot, John A. Trull.

Members of Lord Wilmot's challenge team, who have one leg on the cup as a result of the defeat of the American four on Saturday, were in fine fettle. Especially was this true of Captain Leslie St. C. Cheape, who, although recovering from injuries sustained by being hit in the nose with a ball, was a great factor in defeating the Americans last Saturday.

The Americans reconstructed their lineup today, hoping that a better result will be attained. The personnel of the team was:

There should be some good games this week. The Oaks are a good match for the Seals at any time. The Tigers and Angels have been going great guns lately, and the Seals and Beavers look like an even match.

Everyone is making suggestions as to how Ewing Field, a warmer place for the fans. A few repetitions of Saturday's contest may help the fans to see the full class of the game.

A rival welcome awaits the Oakland baseball busters at Sacramento, when on Sunday, June 25th, they run a special excursion train to the Capital city over the Oakland, Antioch and Eastern railroad. Members of the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce will be on hand with conveyances to escort them to the Sacramento Hotel, where a booster luncheon will be held. At this luncheon representatives of the Sacramento and Oakland commercial organizations will deliver short speeches, while the Oaks and Wolves will favor the affair with their presence. The booster luncheon the busters will be taken about town, shown through the State Capital and then to the fair park, where a section of the grandstand will be set aside for the Oakland fans. The game on that afternoon will be between the Oaks and the Wolves. The game will be a great one, and should show the two teams split even on the six games played up to the Sunday afternoon game. There is sure to be some spirited rooting staged at the Sacramento ball lot on that afternoon. Every fan making the trip on the booster excursion will be supplied with an Oakland pennant and a megaphone or horn.

Connie Mack and Frank Chance have made a trade where Pete Daley, former outfielder with Los Angeles, will join the New York Yankees at Detroit and Chicago. Mack is expected to play the rest of the season with the Indianapolis Federals.

John Kinn, former Trolley League catcher, has joined the Quincy team in the Three-E League.

Armando Marsans, the Cuban outfielder with the Cincinnati Reds, is said to have made good his hope to join the Federals. He is likely to play with the St. Louis team. His salary is to be $25,000 for three years.

Charles C. Carr, who managed the Indianapolis American Association team, is also expected to join the Federals for the season with the Indianapolis Federals.

San Francisco fans, judging from the way the Oaks were welcomed by the Beavers, are counting on seven straight wins for their pennant hopes. They forget that the Oaks always did have their goat. If the Seals break even, they should consider themselves lucky.

The enforcement of the twenty-player limit in the Coast league has resulted in a better game. By San Francisco—Arlett to Spokane, Corbin to O'Brien, Leggett, unconditional. P. Oakland—Ramey to Salt Lake. P. Sacramento—Kid Mobler and Flagg, unconditional.

In the best fielding team that could be picked out of the Pacific Coast league, according to the average after they now stand, Oakland would have four players making the grade.

KAYLOR NOW LEADING OAK HITTER WITH MARK OF 318

"Rowdy" Elliott, the Venice masman, continues to lead the Coast league in hitting with a percentage of .364. Ryan, Portland, is second with .347 and Fitzgerald of San Francisco fourth with .343. Kaylor has displaced Middleton as the leading batter for the Oaks. The lineup for the Oaks is:

VALLEJO MARKSMEN TO VISIT SAN JOSE

VALLEJO, June 16.—The crack shots of the Vallejo Blue Rock Club met at their park Sunday afternoon and a team shoot was one of the many attractions. The team beat the local crackshooters aggregation the best two out of three. The team event, J. V. O'Hara and J. V. O'Hara were the victors. The team's straight score of 10 was also a feature of the shoot.

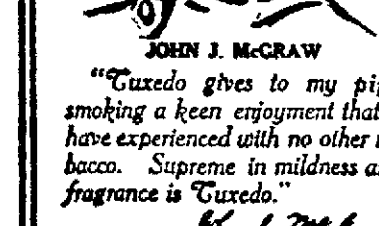

Next Saturday and Sunday the local crackshots will participate in a shoot which will be held in San Jose. The trap shooters have also been invited to participate in a big shoot which will be held in Martinez next month.

Billy Fitz Says, Says he:

June is supposed to be the crucial month in minor league pennant races. By the Fourth of July, according to tradition, some team will have sprinted out in front to an extent that will make it an odds-on favorite for the hunting. The Seals appear to have ardites had no business leading the league at any time, and that if they finish in the first division at all, the fans across the bay may consider themselves befriended by the little god of Luck.

The Los Angeles club is going like a Texas tornado now, and figures to keep up the gait unless accidents put a crimp in their chances, as was the case last year. Men like Boles, Moore, Brooks, Abstein and Walter are all susceptible easily to injury, and such a contingent

The Beavers and the Tigers figure as the two other teams who are likely to advance to a winning effort. Hogan's men have been suspiciously quiet for some time, and even Hogan is quiet. He is usually up to some device.

Tyler Christian and his meek band of martyrs arrived from the North early this morning. Leckie's team beat the Portland coming at the heels of five defeats is not calculated to inspire merit in the victor. Christian ascribes the poor showing of the club to the fact that the pitchers found the climate cold and disagreeable. The Oaks have essentially a warm weather staff of hurlers.

"I look for the Oaks to get started this week against the Seals," said Tyler. "We are not yet out of the race by any means."

Criticism of umpires is not a "minor league sin." The umpires get it in the big show and the little show. For instance, there is George Stollings of the Boston team, who has sent a protest to President Tanager of the National league, declaring that "the league umpires are worse than they were last season, and that is the next thing to the impossible." Lakeview you have probably noticed that our esteemed Mr. Dyer has named his vote in the federal league and there is a fine little row between the skull of the former coast arbitrator (may his dome remain) and the umpires.

FAMILY FORMS OWN STOCK COMPANY

Father Evolves Scheme, Which Keeps Children From Leaving Farm.

ORTONVILLE, Minn., June 15. — The old problem of how to keep the boy on the farm has been solved by a Minnesota farmer, John McCallum, a dairy stock farmer of Big Stone county, organized his nine sons and daughters into a corporation and divided the stock of his 1800 acre farm among them, so that each child has a share in the farm.

Mr. McCallum himself was elected president of the farm corporation by the votes of all the stockholders, while his eldest son, Gilbert, was elected general manager and a younger son, Leslie, was chosen secretary and treasurer. One son was made superintendent of the hog department, and all the children, but one, were given shares in the farm. The other boy was chosen to care for the horses. Between two other sons the cattle and sheep were divided. The girls were placed in charge of the home. Each child was made superintendent of some division of the farm work and given an interest in the farm.

NAMED AFTER HOME.
A few days later I called the children into the parlor one morning after breakfast and told them to be ready for a surprise. There were five sons and four daughters. I presented each child with a stock certificate. The plan I had outlined was for them to keep at work, but some of the stock each year, so that by the time they were all grown up they would have purchased all of the stock and will have absolute control of the farm.

BOARD STOPS LEAKS.
The children were enthusiastic over the idea. It gave them a share in the work on the 1800 acres that they had never had before, and before the first week was over each one of the board of directors was doing his best to earn the share of the stock that he had received. The directors of the corporation are the children. The work of the day is apportioned, while annual meetings of the stockholders are held, as required, but business procedure is fully observed.

The McCallum farm is the only farm corporation in Minnesota. The plan was first suggested by the father, who made reports to the state and to the United States the same as a big railroad corporation does. What has been the result of the experiment? Of the nine children eight have stayed on the farm, one has left. The children who have stayed on the farm have completed their courses and then hurried back home to stay, giving dividends from the farm corporation and planning to return home the minute they have won the coveted degree.

CHECK BOOK HELPS.
In only one important particular does the McCallum corporation differ from the rest of the world. The father has a check book. Each director must write a check on this surplus fund, and when the check what the money is for, and cash it without asking the permission of any other director.

Only once has there been a very decided difference of opinion among the directors. The father was a big surprise. The nine children directors refused to buy an automobile, the president of the corporation was not favorable. The father wanted the one and the nine children refused to give it. The father's check book over it now; perhaps he covered the idea on purpose just to see what would happen.

"I'll have to admit I made it go all right," said the father, "but the kids, they have learned to leave the farm," says Mr. McCallum, "except that one boy, and he was cut out for a lawyer from the start. I guess."

MINNESOTA VOTERS TO FLOCK TO POLLS TODAY

ST. PAUL, June 16.—The heaviest vote in the history of the state was predicted here today when voters flocked to the polls to choose their candidates for the state, legislative, congressional and county offices. Governor A. O. Eberhart concluded yesterday a hot speaking campaign, during which he reached nearly every portion of the state.

SACKVILLE PRETENDER IS TRAGIC SUICIDE

PARIS, June 15.—A tragic end to the romantic claim to the Sackville peerage has just been revealed here. Ernest Henry Jean Baptist Sackville West, who four years ago successfully claimed the British Sackville peerage, shot himself dead a fortnight ago a few minutes after his wife died. He possessed only $2. He was a son of the late Lord Sackville, formerly British ambassador at Washington, by his first wife, the Countess of Sackville. He was a brother of Lady Sackville, to whom Sir John Murray Scott bequeathed his famous art collection.

REAL LIFE WALKS STAGE WITH MACK

Nothing Sensational in His Climaxes, Which Smack of Reality.

Most playwrights seek to surprise their audiences when the curtain goes up. Willard Mack, at the Macdonough this week, does when the curtain goes down. A character begins to speak, and as he goes on the curtain drops, and an act is over. The curtain rises again, the characters speak, and again a sentence is cut off when the curtain drops. There is no sensational climax to end off the act—it just snuffs out, like a dissolving view. In fact, that is what the playwright has tried to do: present some dissolving views of real life. He doesn't end the play with the hero plotting the heroine to his arms, and breathing soft nothings into her ear—it wouldn't be natural. He just has the hero make a speech that suggests that he is in love with the heroine, and then the curtain falls. Mack's clever society play, "The Market Value," is simply four acts which give flashing pictures of life in a certain home. The plot is not worked out completely on the stage—the imagination finishes it.

A SLICE OF LIFE.
Mack, as John Lomax, the rich miner, self-made, offers a clear characterization, and Marjorie Rambeau, as the society butterfly, Mary Abbott, also offers a clever bit of work. John Livingstone is the villain. He handles his role with a nice touch in pleasing his son, Herbert. Fay, Edwin Redding, Robert McClint, Eleanor Bauer, Charles Sinclair and several others are in the cast. The play is satirical where Mack's first Oakland offering, "So Much for So Money," was almost sentimental, suggests Casanova, but does not imitate him. He handles his effects like Willard Mack—and no one else has done the same thing. As a master of stagecraft he is as big a success as his very clever wife is as an actress.

McCune of the First Infantry has been dismissed from the army by order of the President after conviction by court-martial of absconding himself frequently from his post at Alcatraz, Cal., without permission or authority. ### SEXTON, INSANE, TRIES TO TAKE HIS OWN LIFE

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16.—Simon H. Sexton, sexton of the Bush-street synagogue, arose from the dinner table in his home, 1905 Bush street, last night where he was entertaining guests, walked into his bedroom, locked the door and tried to end his life. First he swallowed a quantity of poison, then he stabbed himself with a knife. He was hanging himself when his guests broke the door down. Then a battle followed. A. E. Seiling, a brother, was attacked, and stabbed in the right hand. Dr. George Bloom, 1924 Bush street, another guest, received minor injuries. After a struggle they managed to overcome their home. He was taken to the Central Emergency hospital.

CIVILIZATION EVIL, SAYS EDUCATED BRAVE

TACOMA, Wash., June 16.—Three hundred Indians, representing the Northwest Federation of American Indians, began a three-day session here yesterday. At last night's session Phillip Howell, an educated Indian, severely condemned civilization, referring to crime running rampant; "the struggle between capital and labor"; "the 25,000 women following the crimson path"; and the "sweet shop and child labor conditions." He said: "If these be civilization, give me back my savage."

FINANCIER IS ACCUSED OF WRECKING HIS BANK

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 16.—R. Hunter Ralco, former president of the Memphis and vicinity life bank, yesterday was placed on trial for the alleged wrecking of the bank last February. Ralco is charged with having been charged with $1.00.

One and a half bottles, yesterday was cured on trial for the alleged weakness of the man. Refused to take any more. Charged with having been charged with $1.00.

FAILS TO KEEP SECRET HONEYMOON DESTINATION

"Preserve me from my friends; I'll take my chances with my foes!" So spoke a famous man once, and his words have been echoed by Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Durriage, honeymooners, whose friends have made their honeymoon one of the jokes of the steamer Yale and have also lost the bridegroom considerable money. All of which shows that a man shouldn't bet that he will keep his honeymoon destination a secret. Durriage made his bet, and then claimed as his bride Miss Minnie Haefner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Haefner, of Alameda. They planned to board the Yale—and never thought their friends knew. A bouquet of flowers, at their place in the dining room, marked with their names gave the first clue. Then wireless messages were sent to passengers, announcing that Mr. and Mrs. Durriage just married—were aboard. When the boat arrived at Los Angeles today all their friends from that city were there to meet them—and the bet was lost, the bridegroom's temper ditto—and the bride all blushed.

GIFTS ANNOUNCED FOR MEDICAL SCHOOL

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 16.—Gifts of $1,725,000 for the Yale Medical School were announced by President Arthur T. Hadley of the University last night at the dinner of the school alumni with which the centennial of the foundation of this department was brought to a close. Of the gifts that of $400,000 was reported to have been given by Mrs. Finlay J. Shepard, who was Miss Helen Gould. The university authorities stated the name of the donor would not be made public at this time.

STREET PAVING CAUSES CAR LINE RE-ROUTING

The Safety First Department of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway reorganized and fully departmented will this week begin active work. The organization is now complete.

DON'T LOSE SLEEP WEAUGHING AT NIGHT

Take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. The very first dose surprises you. It glides down your throat and spreads a healing, soothing coating over the inflamed and tickling surface. That's immediate relief. It loosens up the tightness in your chest, stops stuffy, wheezy breathing; eases distressing, rattling, tearing coughs, soothes the irritated throat.

Children love it. It is mildly laxative—as a cough medicine it should be, and does not upset or distress the most sensitive stomach. Refuse any substitute. Consult a physician. Sold everywhere.
